

Background

Bedell Cellars is one of the premier wineries on the North Fork of Long Island and one of the wine world's up-and-coming stars. A nationally recognized leader in quality, Bedell produces award-winning Merlot, Bordeaux-style blends, and a new Artist Series with label art commissioned from Eric Fischl, Barbara Kruger, Ross Bleckner, and Chuck Close. The Corey Creek Vineyards label, also grown and produced by Bedell Cellars, is renowned for a series of small batch, varietally-labeled wines, such as Gewurztraminer, Cabernet Franc, and Rosé.

The wines of Bedell and Corey Creek are made from grapes grown on their three vineyard sites, totaling 78 planted acres: Bedell Vineyards in Cutchogue, Corey Creek Vineyards in Southold, and the new, stand-alone Wells Road Vineyards in Peconic.

Bedell's owner, Michael Lynne, Executive Producer of the Lord of the Rings trilogy, is raising the bar for quality among Long Island wine estates. Working alongside Bedell's Chief Operating Officer Trent Preszler are founding Winemaker Kip Bedell, Assistant Winemaker Kelly Urbanik and Consulting Oenologist Pascal Marty, formerly of Château Mouton-Rothschild.
