

Background

Established in 1980, Pugliese Vineyards is a family owned and operated winery. It is one of the oldest vineyards on Long Island's North Fork. At harvest, all grapes are hand picked; and all wines are estate bottled.

Especially known for their sparkling wines and ports, Pugliese Vineyards is also known for their Sangiovese and Pinot Grigio.

Pat Pugliese specializes in wedding favors and is also known for her hand painted Champagne bottles and wine glasses, which she started in 1988.
